

Computers and the Internet 26.

To back up (something) to make a copy of information from your computer.

a back up a copy of information from your computer broadband a connection to the internet that allows you to send receive a lot of information quickly.

To download something to move writing, sound, images software, etc. to your computer from the internet or another computer

a download something that you have downloaded from the internet or another computer your favorites (or/ favourites) a place on your computer where you keep links to the websites that you see most often.

a forum a website where people can read and write about a particular subject.

To install something to put software onto your computer

a post a message that someone has put on a website.

a thread a series of messages on a forum about a particular subject

To upload something to move writing, sound, images, software, etc. From your computer to the internet or another computer

A webcam a camera that is connected to a computer and sends pictures to a website

With a system for connecting a computer to the internet without wires.

To zip something to make a computer files smaller that it is easier to store or send.