

PERFORMANCE 4

On Monday I went to study, and a group of people arrived who were gathering more people to do a singing contest, I immediately went to hide in the bathroom because I don't like that kind of thing, when I got to the bathroom I saw another girl hid, María, and we started to talk about the contest, she told me that she had heard that relatives could participate, I went to ask and exactly that was the case, and she told me:

M - Does your mother sing?

I - Yes my mom sings well and she likes to sing.

M - Why don't you tell her to participate?

I - Because she Works, but I'll see if she can ask for permission. And what will you do? Does your mom sing?

M - No but I'll tell my dad.

The day of the contest came and my mother was definitely able to participate, I got very nervous when my mother was singing, but she did very well and she won first place and Maria's father won second place. It was really fun and beautiful to see my mother sing.
