

PERFORMANCE 6

I am Sara and I live in Guatemala, next month I will move to Spain for my studies, I am saving for my plane ticket, because they are expensive and to achieve it, I work in the mornings in a shoe selling and in the afternoon in a restaurant, other than that, I want to get a tattoo before I go, and it's not cheap either.

I have many friends, but of all of them I only have two best friends, Abigail and Olivia, I love both of them very much but I am closer with Olivia, yesterday I told her about my plan to move and this happened:

S: Hi Olivia

O: Hi Sara, what are you doing?

S: cleaning in my room but I called you to tell you that next month I will move to Spain

O: but what happened? Because you are leaving?

S: for my studies Olivia, but I will come to visit you every year.

O: no, please don't go. Well, I understand, it's for studies, but I'll miss you.

My other friends reacted in a similar way, I will really miss them too much, but I must take advantage of this great opportunity.
