

Performance, history. Lesson 25 and 27 vocabulary.

“A strange day at the mall” (part #3)

The girls were surprised by Karen's creativity, they exchanged glances, they had been to this mall before and they knew there were cameras in the parking lot. So with an almost joking tone they told the officer to check the cameras, the officer agreed while Karen changed her mischievous expression, she tried to stop them so their plans wouldn't be ruined, but to no avail. In the end, the girls were able to spend the rest of their day at the mall, and Karen was taken aback from the place.