

Kreddy the runner

Once upon a time, there was a very intelligent man with a lot of skill with automobiles, he was a man with long blonde hair, he was loved by many people, he dreamed of racing in formula one, years passed and Kreddy worked and at the same time he trained, until a Ferrari representative invited him to a race and Kreddy cried for happiness, the time came for the race and Kreddy showed his potential, the people were amazed and years later Kreddy got a scholarship with a group where he manager with professionals, Kreddy to fulfill a dream that was impossible

