

The flower of honesty

Hello, today I am going to tell you about a myth in a kingdom, here I go. Long ago in a very distant kingdom lived a prince and the king his father told him:

- King; I am ready to tell you this, you mean everything to me and also your happiness and all your feeling. I'm already a dead man, I mean I do not have much time to live, I daydream and I have a new message for you, I think it's time for you to look for a wife, as soon as possible because for a long time there hasn't been a free child running around here.
- Prince; It's okay father, I understand, whoever it is I love her and I would like her, I hope you feel better.
- King; Immediately I will write a letter and vary it and thus we will call all the marriageable women of the kingdom so that you can choose a wife.

The king called the messenger impatiently and said; You are a dead man if you don't say this message as soon as possible then the message went away and the letter was read by the messenger that said; I sent a message to all the women of the kingdom for a competition, so that they have the opportunity to marry my son the prince, they are free to present themselves because I would hate if they do not have the opportunity and say, what is your problem? Next day everyone was introducing themselves and the main's daughter wanted to apply, but because of her suit she didn't want to, she just wanted to forget it but the mother and the other who worked there told her I don't think so, but Flower said:

- Flower; Better no. I don't want to talk to anyone or see anyone or not yet, because I can't get overcome the conditions I have, it is not a surprise or something unexpected and she being free to express her feelings, they were to go an cry loudly in her room, she said; I shouted loudly and I was writing a letter because life is not fair, but I think I'm in love with the prince and he means everything to me, I want to be a person with more possibilities, imagine that I was a rich person my life would be different and a little crazy. But then I think I shouldn't waste my time on that because I'm free to make my decisions.

Hi mother knocked on the door and said I came to see you and ask if you feel good or bad, her, are you sad? You're crying? because I don't like and hate that is to say that you are sad but really what are you thinking? Because you know that you are my favorite, do you feel better? and Flower told her mother and told her is ready gave her the letter to read, her mother supported her and told her to go ahead and try and she was so happy for her mother's support she said "your mom always supporting me". The others who worked there also told her to go because she was already there and not only that but also, she is ready and if she did not go, they told her that we will kill you! You are dead woman! but she insisted that she couldn't, say she; I can't, I cannot. She told herself to stop trying, stop wasting time, she told herself that she would have to make up her mind, face it late, early or never and then she reacted and she introduced herself and the king said;

- King; I need you to do the things to do, to grow the most beautiful flower of all and the one that does it will be done by my son's wife. The most romantic prince of all and the richest, and the most important thing you must do is be honest because otherwise you will die, but not literally, you will always do good not evil, I not want something unexpected.
- Contestants; your majesty is fine.

The king gave them a pot and a seed to grow. Saying there I leave it to each contestant. Everyone took the liberty of cultivated it.

- Flower; I am going to grow it with love so that it grows happy and well because this seed means everything to me, this could change my life and also because I love flowers too one of my favorite things to do is grow plants or in this case flowers, I daydreamed that my flower is the most beautiful. I hope he does not die because if it did, I would get angry and scream loudly.

But the maid's daughter did not grow the flower and asked for help saying to her mother, what do I need to do? But her mother asked her, what happened? But they couldn't do anything. It was the day to present the flower and Flower had an accident because she did not want to take it the pot down, she said I can't, I can't, I'm a dead person, because she couldn't find a solution anymore and she thought that the seed was already hurt when they gave her That's why she didn't grow up, not wanting to go but her friends from work told her, you're crazy! and they encouraged her to go to present it because she had done everything necessary, but they told her in the end you are free to make your own decisions and so she made her decision, she went to present it, but they all laughed at her, because they did not understand why she was carrying a pottery pot, but she was still late and said;

- Flower; I apologize for the delay.
- King; don't worry miss.

And the king kept talking and asked.

- King; Answer I have a question, whose basin pot is this?
- King; Where is she? Answer, I want to see her.
- Contestants; there she is, careful get out of way.

They whispered to her, "She is a dead woman," and they told her, "You're dead!" With a way of telling him that she was in trouble, but she said in her mind that she needs respect.

- Flower; it's mine, your majesty of it passes.
- King; Because you have an empty flowerpot.
- Flower; I'm sorry, your Highness for bringing you a basin flowerpot.

- King; Don't worry, What's your name?
 - Flower; my name is Flower
 - King; you will be my son's wife
 - Prince; I see you and I am in love with you because you were very honest. I've been thinking about you.
 - Flower; He wants me!

His mother said screaming with happiness; I miss you that when it happens that you go to live with the princes, I will miss you more every day and Flower told her to wait, feel better, I am sorry that I am leaving for a few days, but we will always be together because you will live in the castle same.

- Contestants; What was that? It must have been a mistake, why did she win? If we are better than her.

One of the competitors said "I hate this", because I like this opportunity to change my life. Why is this happening to me? That I have to go? To change my luck. After a while the contestants said, are we sad? Not being sure of their feelings, they said "Prepare yourself and be careful in doing one thing, because we don't want what happened to us to happen to you.

- King; It is not an error. What happens with these people who don't understand, the seeds that I gave you is a sterile seed. And only your Flower were you able to be honest.

Flower's coworkers told her I can't believe it! I don't know what you're thinking, but what is certain is that "We told you" Yes now I understand why they insisted so much while I said what is your problem? Sorry for what I said.

The kingdom celebrated the marriage of the prince and the new princess with a party, but many did not want to go to the party, but the other people told them to take the liberty of going to a very free party because if they did not miss going to the party, the prince leaves and told the princess his wife; She is ready to dance. They went on a trip, after a few days they already missed their kingdom and so they returned.

At the end of the Flower party, the new princess was free to go to princess school to act like one, but she did not sleep because she was studying the rules, because the kingdom deserved respect and because it was her favorite kingdom, so as not to disappoint her kingdom.

- Flower; I spend a lot of time because we ride in a carriage because I went on a trip and I have just gone back I already missed my kingdom and I am very tired and busy. I was freeing myself up a lot and I can't work because I'm tired and I'm hungry that I forgot to say I what I have been writing, but I already feel better, I believe dream come true if you work hard to achieve it and do not waste your time and you will see that you achieve it, and you won't fall but I have a question for you what's your favorite thing to do? Because it is your dream.

So, they were happy. The end.
