

Performance, history. Lesson 25 and 27 vocabulary.

“A strange day at the mall” (part #2)

The girls had just entered the mall, when one of the mall policemen intercepted them. What's wrong, officer? they asked bewildered, when Karen appeared out of nowhere yelling "it's them officer, they're the troublemakers. Arrest them!". The girls knew what Karen was planning, so they quietly asked what they were being blamed for. The officer told them that Karen entered the place upset, saying that some girls had threatened her so that she would give up her parking space.